

“Audrey was the most warm-hearted and intelligent person it has ever been my privilege to know. Her life was spent sharing her love and skills with those around her. Her greatest happiness came from her children, grandchildren and in recent years, her great grandchild, Emilia. It was an honour and a joy to share forty years with her.”

Poem

'The Hands of Time'

*The clock of life is wound but once
No-one has the power*

*To tell just when the hands may stop
The year, the day, the hour*

*When you plan a kindly deed
Act now, use all your skill*

*The present only is our own
Live, love, toil with a will*

*Wait not till tomorrow
The hands may then be still*
