

Mary Catherine Cole

9th May 1923 to 25th January 2019
In Memoriam

Order of Service

Music: Alexis French "Bluebird"

Introduction and celebration of the life of Mary Cole by Felicity Harvest, Celebrant from Humanist UK.

- Thoughts on Life and Death
- The Tribute

Eulogy from Rosanne Cole and reading of "Milk for the Cat" by Harold Monro

Tribute from Felicity Harvest

Reading by Matthew Cole of "Bustopher Jones: The Cat About Town" by T S Elliott

Reflection on personal memories of Mary Cole

Music: Claude Debussy "Clair de Lune"

Closing words by Felicity Harvest

Music: Smile by Nat King Cole

Departure for Committal at Snatts Cemetery

Memories

"I will always think of Mary throwing back her head and laughing"

"My memories of your parents are either at Dell Quay or Downshire Hill. What a lot of smoking and drinking went on then!"

"She was such a wild and attractive woman"

"Mary often gave me the impression she would go on forever.."

"When she laughed at me I was so glad I had made her happy"

"I remember happy times with you both. Her amazing cooking and getting dressed in beautiful dresses for supper"

"I for one will remember her lovely smile"

"Remember her as the feisty life and soul of the party that she used to be!"

"Vivid memories of her being an elegant, well spoken and strong minded lady"

"I will always remember visiting for a "summer party" on my bike when I was a student. Mary was always kind to me"

"In her prime she was a wonderful lady - a great hostess, wife and mother".

