Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep

Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.

A Long Cup Of Tea

Death is too negative for me;
So I'll be popping off for a long cup of tea.
Do splash out on two bags in the pot
And for my god's sake, keep the water hot.
Please pick the biggest mug you can find;
Size really does matter at this time.
I'll pass on the lapsang with that souchong
And that stuff with bergamot,
And stick with my favourite friend.
You know the English breakfast blend?
Breakfast! Thanks for reminding me.
There's just time before I fail to stand on ceremony.
Two rashers of best back
Should keep me smelling sweet up the smokestack;
So, Mother, put the kettle on for me.
It's time, Mother, for my long cup of tea.

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears.
Remember all the laughter
We've shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that as I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.
