Poem

'Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep'

Read by Jane & Mark, Tony's daughter & son

Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glint on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you wake in the morning hush, I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight

I am the soft starlight at night.

Do not stand at my grave and weep. I am not there, I do not sleep.

(Do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there, I did not die!)

And finally, in our Dad's inimitable fashion, 'You can all go now!'

Closing Music - 'Mack The Knife'

Frank Sinatra

The family would like to thank you for all the many kind messages of sympathy and support they have received.
