I AM NOT GONE
ANON

I am not gone
I am in the hearts and bodies of my children,
I am in the raising of my children and their children to come,
I am in their laughter and in their eyes,
Following a lifelong pattern I have set before them,
I am in their caring and in their strength,
I am in the minds of everyone that has known me.
Search your hearts for good memories,
And then you will know
I am not gone.
